CIVIL RIGHTS DECISION.

An Immense Mass Meeting of the Colored Citizens and Their Friends at Lincoln Hall.

Eloquent Speeches by Fred Douglass, Colonel R. G. Ingersoll and Others.

The Republican and Democratic Parties Resolved of Their Declarations and Pledges.

The Organization of Civil Rights Action Associations Recommended.

Special to the GAZETTE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 25. In all its history Lincoln Hall was never so crowded as last night.

There was no standing room there, and so many were turned away.

The occasion was an equally remarkable as the attendance in bringing together all the best prominent colored citizens of the District, as well as very many distinguished whites.

of the land can be afforded than the adoption in the several States of the contract of a measure guaranteeing that protection sought to be established by the Civil Rights act of 1875.

Resolved, That the progress of the colored American, in morals, education, frugality, industry, and general usefulness, as a man and as a citizen, makes it the part of sound policy and wisdom to maintain and protect him in the enjoyment of the fullest and most complete rights of citizenship.

Resolved, That we invite the co-operation of all good men and women in securing such legislation as may be necessary to complete our freedom, and that we advise the immediate organization of civil rights associations throughout the country, the secured system of agitation and earnest work for our cause may be inaugurated and carried out.

The chairman then, in the most complimentary terms, introduced Frederick Douglass, alluding to him as the one leader to whom the colored people had always looked in every emergency, and that he had always been found equal to every emergency.

HON. FRED. DOUGLASS. When Mr. Douglass advanced to the front of the platform he was greeted with loud and prolonged applause. He spoke from a manuscript, saying that he had taken the pains to write what he had to say that he might not be very clear on the subject of Kansas, the enactment of the Fugitive Slave law, the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the Dred Scott decision.

He said that he had the feeling that he had taken the pains to write what he had to say that he might not be very clear on the subject of Kansas, the enactment of the Fugitive Slave law, the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the Dred Scott decision.

We would like to see those colored brethren who will not have colored men stop raising such a racket about Civil Rights. They will not have any more of their own color, and why should they want more than they are willing to give?

Grandest event of the season. Concert and ball at Melodion Hall, November 28. Save your dinner.

Mr. George Johnson has returned from his visit to the Champion City much delighted with the treatment he received.

We have just received a copy of R. O. C. Benjamin's Historical Chart of the Colored Race. It comes back as far as 1,000 years B. C., dating down to the present time. No colored man should be without one, as the price is only twenty-five cents.

Let Smith leave the country. He is a bad man. He is a bad man. He is a bad man.

George Conley left for Chicago last Wednesday to meet Dr. J. M. Smith, who was female impersonator.

The Apollonian Convention Tuesday at the C. C. Lewis' convention. The Indianapolis Apollonian. Quite a number of people were present. The club is supposed to be made up of gentlemen and nothing but this class is expected to attend.

Mr. James M. Burton and Mr. William M. Lewis, who have returned from Indianapolis, where he expects to winter.

What has become of our amateur economists, our prima donnas, our pianists? Are the young people not interested in the pleasure of the city? We have no more literary societies or anything of the sort for consolation. We, as a race, expecting to rank with our people in the other leading cities of the West, must go to work and show the people of the West.

The Demand for Skillful Liars.

It does not require a portfolio of art to tell a lie. To tell a romantic or thrilling yarn so as to give it the appearance of truth without intending to be the gift of the true novelist. Many of the professional sensation-mongers of the day have simple imaginations and lack of veracity in imagination to launch and vivacious of imagination to launch a very excellent story. They fall often from lack of veracity and imagination and information of their subject, and from an unwillingness to verify the things which they intend to be possible. Little would be needed in many cases to fill the sketch out most harmoniously and accurately, but rather than exert themselves to perfect their work, they lazily throw in any details that come to hand and leave the inaccuracies to disappoint and disgust those capable of discovering them. It is much to be regretted that so important a part of a newspaper as its columns of untruth should be intended to unskilled hands. There is a fortune awaiting the accurate liar.—Philadelphia Record.

Wells' "Rough on Corns." Ask for it. Complete, permanent cure. Corns, blemishes, etc.

"Isn't it singular," said a writer going Niagara Falls, "that the little article that came from that vast outcrop should be called 'Rough on Corns'?"

Wells' "Rough on Corns" is entirely different from all others. It is a water, and as the name indicates is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It immediately lifts the hair from the scalp, and does not injure the scalp, and produces a new growth of hair, and falls off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which is a common effect of all other hair restorers. It will change light hair to dark in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Barron, Adams & Co., Wholesale Agents, Cleveland, Ohio, and C. N. Carter, New York.

Stinging Irritation, All Itches and Stings. Complete relief by "Rough on Corns." For sore feet, swollen joints, sprains, corns or bunions, use Dr. Patrick's "Rough on Corns." "Wells' Hair Restorer" restores health and vigor, cures Dandruff.

Yes, the other may not be just as good, but I prefer N. K. Brown's Hair Restorer. It is the only one that will restore the hair to its natural color and growth.

Files, rasches, steel, lead-pens, razors, mirrors, cleared out by "Rough on Corns." Blood-purifier—An Amazing Discovery. Half the people are suffering from many of the diseases of the blood. It is a simple matter to cure them. Discontinue the use of all other blood-purifiers. As a cure you can only recommend "Rough on Corns."—Journal of the Medical Profession.

Don't Die in the House. "Rough on Corns" cures out of the house. "Rough on Corns" cures out of the house. "Rough on Corns" cures out of the house.
